Reichard & Escalera Receives Top Rankings from Chambers & Partners

Reichard & Escalera (“R&E”) is proud to receive top rankings from Chambers & Partners’ Latin America and Global guides for 2014 and 2015, respectively. The firm’s Dispute Resolution practice received a high ranking and 4 of its attorneys were recognized among the best in Puerto Rico in their respective areas of practice.

Chambers and Partners, an independent and research-based legal marketplace guide, showcases only the best lawyers per location and practice area. In this year’s guides, founding members, Héctor Reichard de Cardona and Rafael Escalera received well deserved recognition. Also, two of the newest professionals to have joined R&E, Carlos E. Serrano and Claudia Motta were ranked and recognized for their professional achievements.

Héctor Reichard de Cardona was ranked in the Corporate/Commercial practice areas, with an acknowledgment that he “earns acclaim for his experience in the sector and his skill as a litigator”.

Rafael Escalera, Head of Litigation, is ranked as a Band 1 attorney in the Dispute Resolution practice area and regarded as “one of the most highly respected litigators in the region, and has a very high profile. Peers recognise his intellectual strength, knowledge and writing skills”.

Carlos E. Serrano, Head of Tax, is ranked as a Band 2 attorney. Chambers Latin America boasts that he “has expertise in tax incentives and solid past experience in this space given his time at the Puerto Rico Treasury Department.” He led on “high-value tax litigation related to Puerto Rico’s tax incentive policies”.

Claudia Motta, is ranked by Chambers Global and Latin America for her work in the corporate field. She is described as “excellent” and as having “raw talent”. Ms. Motta “is also noted for her experience in finance and securities law”.

With this latest recognition, R&E solidifies its standing as one of the leading law firms in Puerto Rico. We thank you, our friends, clients and colleagues for your reviews.
