Reichard & Escalera LLC Update

With this recent COVID-19 outbreak, we are informing our clients that our services and responding capabilities will remain unaffected, ensuring prevention and any risk of spreading the coronavirus in our workplace and community.

We are following the World Health Organization recommendations and to such effect:

- We have limited our business travel plans and in-office meetings.
- Our team is enabled to work remotely in case of confinement or spread prevention. We can assure the quality of work and communications will not be affected by these circumstances.
- All in- office meetings will be postponed or managed according to our safety protocol.

Reichard & Escalera LLC is committed to providing the best service, while responding in a sensible and sensitive manner, aligned with official recommendations and our current Puerto Rico and global situation.
